

Editorial Comment/Preface

This edition of Trailblazer International Journal of Educational Research (TIJER) presents an exquisite blend of articles from multi-disciplinary studies. The article traverse theories, concepts and practices in Sciences, Politics, History, Education, Language, Literature, Economics, Geography, Agriculture, Early Childhood Care And Education, Psychology and Vocational and Technical Education beside others.. The articles in this edition make TIJER an exemplar of academic journal. The authors of these articles in this journal anchored their papers on originality, currency and scholarship.

Members of the Editorial Board as well as Consulting Editors are appreciated for their commitment and scholarly assessment of the manuscripts. Without doubt, precise and cogent recommendations of editorial team have helped us in making necessary editorial decisions. Contributors from national radius whose papers make this volume are all commended. We welcome well-researched articles from different disciplines in our subsequent editions.

Reading TIJER will surely expand the cognition of students, teachers, academics, professionals and scholars. It will equally help the administrators, educational policy makers, scientists, among others, in expanding, their knowledge and in formulating policies.

Research reports, book reviews, position and empirical papers that can broaden, expand and extend scholarship in different disciplines are all welcome in TIJER.

The College Management is commended and appreciated for their unalloyed support for the success of TIJER. Eureka! TIJER has come to expand global multi-disciplinary scholarship. Kudos to the College Management for giving us enabling environment to engage in research programme of this kind. We equally appreciate all that have contributed in cash and in kind in making TIJER a reality.

Thank you all.

Dr. Samuel Adejare Olaoluwa,

Editor-in-Chief